Promote Well-Informed Policy Decisions
8:15 am (30 min)	Presentation – Sgt. Shawn Scott, SRO	SRO's are essential to schools, law enforcement and our communities. The role of an SRO is ongoing. You interact with the same people day-in and day-out. It is very different than working in traditional law enforcement, including working with civilian supervisors.

		SROs wear three hats mainly: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Educator • Counselor • Law enforcement officer But SRO's also do a lot more depending on what is needed on any given day. When SRO's deal with children they try to guide them, but also look after their well-being through investigation of their home life. It's not just about enforcement, a lot of it is about doing what's best for the kids. It's important to develop trust with the students so they feel comfortable reporting abuse to law enforcement. SRO's need two things: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Desire to do the work. • Support. Conferences are important for the support of SRO's.
